

Type of Activity:
 Lead-up Drill
 Fitness Game

Score: _____/20

Berkey's Assessment of Games

1. Name of the game: "Bean Bag Toss"
2. Source of the game: playcornhole.org
3. Brief description of the game: Players alternate tosses of corn bags to the designated targets in order to work on toss technique.

Activity Analysis

	Low	-----			High
1. Students can develop physical skills.	1	2	3	4	5
State the skills: TA form of the pitch and the single turn delivery
Students can practice appropriately	Yes				No

	Low	-----			High
2. Participation level	1	2	3	4	5
Roles of the students: Students will engage in the practice of proper technique of form and pitch delivery.
Potential examples of waiting: Individuals wait for their turn in pitching sequence.

	Low	-----			High
3. Activity is developmentally appropriate	1	2	3	4	5
Stage/Age for which activity is appropriate: eighth grade
Justification for this population/group: To allow for repetitions of pitch delivery and proper TA form.

	Low	-----			High
4. Cognitive, personal and social development	1	2	3	4	5
Examples of personal skills (Action/Condition): Partner Work
Examples of cognitive skills (Action/Condition): Proper technique/sequence
Safety awareness and practice procedures

Modifications for special needs students: Modify the distance between pitching boxes if needed.

