

Type of Activity:
 Lead-up Drill
 Fitness (Game)

Score: _ 19/20

Berkey's Assessment of Games

1. Name of the game: A form of Freeze Tag
2. Source of the game: MI-EPEC
3. Brief description of the game: Four students have yarn balls and they try to tag other students with the ball, students that are frozen stand with legs and arms spread, students may get unfrozen when an unfrozen students creeps under their legs.

Activity Analysis

	Low	-----			High
1. Students can develop physical skills.	1	2	3	(4)	5
State the skills: Running, dodging
Students can practice appropriately		(Yes)			No

	Low	-----			High
2. Participation level	1	2	3	4	(5)
Roles of the students: Students are try to tag others and try not to get tagged
Potential examples of waiting: Students will have to wait during distribution of yarn balls.

	Low	-----			High
3. Activity is developmentally appropriate	1	2	3	4	(5)
Stage/Age for which activity is appropriate: 2nd
Justification for this population/group: Personal/Social Skill

	Low	-----			High
4. Cognitive, personal and social development	1	2	3	4	(5)
Examples of personal skills (Action/Condition): Following directions
Examples of cognitive skills (Action/Condition): Communicate following directions verbal cues

Modifications for special needs students: