

Berkey's Assessment of Games

Assessment Form

Name of Activity: Circle Run

BAGS Score: 18

Source: Holt, Shirley Ann. On the Move. Fifth Edition. Mayfield Publishing Company, 2001.

Description of Activity: All students will start in a circle. Students will count off by threes and begin to run. When their number is called, they will sprint around the circle back to their spot.

Source of Activity: Shirley Ann Holt

Criterion 1: Activity develops physical skills

- Skills that are developed: Sprinting
- Students can practice appropriately: Yes No

Low-----

High

1 2 3 4 5

Criterion 2: Activity requires active participation by all students.

- Is there any waiting in the activity? Yes No
- There is a way to re-enter if eliminated in the activity. Yes No
- All participants have an active role in the activity. Yes No

1 2 3 4 5

Criterion 3: Activity requires skills and movement that are developmentally appropriate.

- Skills requires are appropriate for stage suggested. Yes No
- Conditions imposed are challenging but attainable. Yes No

1 2 3 4 5

Criterion 4: Cognitive and personal-social skills are incorporated in the activity.

- List identification, comprehension or application skills: ID their number, proper sprint techniques

- List personal-social skills that could be incorporated: listening for instructions, demonstrating competitiveness.

- Personal-social skills are appropriate for the stage/age suggested. Y N

1 2 3 4 5

Modifications that would improve this activity: Number of students per circle, Amount of times a number is called.