

Type of Activity:
 Lead-up Drill
 Fitness Game

Score: 18/20

Berkey's Assessment of Games

1. Name of the game: Tater Diggin
2. Source of the game: PE Central
3. Brief description of the game: Students will perform a cartwheel and pick up the closest bean bag with one hand and the farthest bean bag with the other hand, than they toss the bean bag into a five gallon bucket.

Activity Analysis

	Low	-----			High
1. Students can develop physical skills.	1	2	3	4	5
State the skills: Cartwheel and tossing
Students can practice appropriately	Yes		No

	Low	-----			High
2. Participation level	1	2	3	4	5
Roles of the students: Students do cartwheel and toss bean bags into a bucket
Potential examples of waiting: Sit and wait until their turn (no more than 3-4 per group)

	Low	-----			High
3. Activity is developmentally appropriate	1	2	3	4	5
Stage/Age for which activity is appropriate: Grades 3-5
Justification for this population/group: Developmentally appropriate

	Low	-----			High
4. Cognitive, personal and social development	1	2	3	4	5
Examples of personal skills (Action/Condition): Cooperation
Examples of cognitive skills (Action/Condition): Four critical points

Modifications for special needs students: Log roll, seat roll instead of forward/backward roll. Eliminate the physical skill, just work on the tossing.

